

XM should have the same opportunities as the local broadcasters. I like the immediate capability of hearing local traffic and weather updates for my area. This is a service that the local stations do not deliver and have had no interest in delivering until their competition has it.